The three differentiators: where each rival stands

All 11 stages at a glance

Mapping rule: for each differentiator, average the rival's matrix scores on the listed stages (scored stages only) and compare with Sales Navigator's average. Beats = rival ≥ 0.5 higher · matches = within 0.5 · trails = ≥ 0.5 lower · no data = no scored stage (not plotted).

Biggest threats

1 Agents cannot reach Sales Navigator; rivals invite them in

16 of 17 rivals ship an official MCP; LinkedIn's partner program is closed to new applicants and its User Agreement bans bots. Lusha and Apollo open API access on Free plans.

2 Signal specialists outscore it on timing

ZoomInfo, Common Room and UserGems score 5/5 on buying signals vs Sales Navigator 4/5; UserGems and Clay market job-change and champion tracking.

3 Rival extensions sit on top of Sales Navigator search

ZoomInfo, Cognism and Lusha demo extensions on Sales Navigator pages; Evaboot cites no native lead export as the reason (user videos, 2024, dated).

4 Bundled agentic outreach at volume

Apollo and Outreach score 5/5 on outreach vs Sales Navigator 1/5; a Salesforce partner states Agentforce SDR sends up to 1,800 emails/day out of the box (Aug 2026).

Five moves that matter

1 Ship a sanctioned Sales Navigator MCP/API on seat entitlements

Closes the 1/5 API score; 16 of 17 rivals already have one, and unofficial servers (LinkMCP, Unipile) drive signed-in accounts against the User Agreement.

2 Make the warm path the agent-facing product

No rival beats Sales Navigator on warm path (10 trail, 7 no data); expose relationship maps and TeamLink paths as queryable tools.

3 Package first-party signals against third-party intent

Profile views and content engagement are unique to LinkedIn; three rivals score 5/5 on signals with third-party or CRM data, and two agencies report ignoring Apollo's intent filters (Nov 2025).

4 Remove the reason for scraping extensions

A native, ToS-compliant export or CRM push removes the gap rivals' extensions fill; Advanced Plus CRM sync is daily (CRM 3/5).

5 Price agentic actions inside the seat, not as credits

HubSpot's Prospecting Agent now consumes credits after a free period (May 2026); Unify draws all seats from one credit pool. A seat-included agent tier is a contrast point; this is our inference.

Known gaps
34 of 198 cells have no evidence. Sales Navigator has captures for 6 of 11 stages. Rox and Common Room have no independent user videos; Actively and Unify videos are by rivals. 19 of 44 user videos are flagged as sponsored or conflicted (rival, partner or affiliate); 27 are over 12 months old and down-weighted. Outreach and personalization in Unify not tested (mailbox connection required).
